Public Transport

Metro hours: 5am–midnight; Tram hours: 4:30am–midnight; Night Trams (51-59): midnight–4.30am;
Tram Stop for Czech Inn: Krymská.

The Metro is easy to figure out since there are only three lines: A, B, and C. Validate your ticket in the small yellow boxes before going to the Metro platform. For trams or buses look for the red and yellow tram or bus signs. You'll need a ticket before you board since you can't buy them on trams or buses. We offer various ticket options at reception.

At the tram stop day trams are white or yellow and night trams are blue. 'Pracovní den' means workdays, 'Sobota' is Saturday and 'Neděle' is Sunday. Tram stops next to a metro have this symbol: Easy!

Sandemans New Prague Free Tour

Edge Old Town Square/ Pařížská (C4): In our opinion this is really the best walking tour in Prague! It is based on tips only, so if you like it, you can tip the guides at the end, but you never have to. Tours start daily at 11am and 2pm, both in English and Spanish, and last 3 hours with a break in between. If you want to get to know the city, then we recommend this tour with its cool guides!

Clock Tower Bar Crawl

Old Town Square (C4): A pub crawl, and a fun one. Free unlimited beer, wine, vodka, rum and absinth shots till 11pm, then welcome shots, VIP club entrance and entertaining guides! So if you venture to join a pub crawl with all its possible consequences, then we recommend this one. Meeting point daily at 9:15pm at the astronomical clock—look for the CLOCKTOWER logo. Tickets at reception. Enjoy!

Segway Experience Tours & Rents

Mostecká 4 (B4): Segway? That's a two-wheeled, self-balancing vehicle—and lots of fun! You can experience it on a 3-hours Segway-city tour, starting daily at 11am & 3pm at Mostecká 4 near Charles Bridge, or on a Movie tour at 7pm. Information and discounted tickets (1350 Kč instead of 1500 Kč) at reception!

Hidden Treasures

- Prague Zoo (C1): One of the best in the world!
- Botanical Gardens (C1 & C6): Try out the one in Troja, just next to the zoo.
- Lennon Wall (B4): A constantly changing graffiti wall and symbol of resistance against the now fallen communist government.
- Vitkov Hill (F4): Home of the largest equestrian statue in the world; focus on the breathtaking view!
- Olšanské Hřbitovy: This old Jewish/Christian cemetery houses the real grave of Franz Kafka.
- Vyšehrad (C7): Enjoy the views and hang with the locals over a Gambrinus or Pilsner and grilled goodies.

Patagonia Outlet

Revoluční 1 (D4): If you like Patagonia and you're looking for some new outdoor clothing, then we have good news for you: in Prague there is a Patagonia Outlet, with prices up to 70% off! We support their approach to environmental engagement, such as donating 1% of their sales to environmental organisations. A good thing to do. Open daily 10am–8pm.

Beyond Prague

- Olomouc is a beautiful university town full of parks, fountains, and cathedrals. We recommend checking out the sweet digs at Poet's Corner.
- Český Krumlov is the perfect fairytale bohemian town in the foothills of the Šumava. The town is small but rich in character. Walk crooked cobblestone streets and breathe in the atmosphere of woodsmoke, the Vltava rushing by, and the clear air your city-filled lungs crave.

German Backpacker Network

Travelling to Germany next? Then check out the hostels listed on the German Backpacker Network! More than 50 independent hostels in 35 cities joined to create a non-commercial network, supporting each other, while offering safe, cheap and clean accommodation and a home-away-from-home feeling for guests. We like this idea! www.backpackernetwork.de

Swiss Backpackers

If you plan on going to Switzerland, then we recommend you have a look at the Swiss Backpackers website, or to take one of their red brochures in our flyer rack. 33 personally run hostels in 26 cities all over the country can be found there, offering a great atmosphere and good value for your money! www.swissbackpackers.ch
